

Make Room Week 5: Read Luke 19:28-44

Icebreaker

Share about a time when something happened unexpectedly that was better than you might have thought at first.

Discuss

Everyone praised Jesus as He entered Jerusalem. What do you praise Jesus for in your life? Be specific.

The Jews were expecting a King to overthrow the Romans, but Jesus was going to bring them victory in a different way. What expectations did you have of Jesus that have changed since starting a relationship with Him?

Share about a time when Jesus changed your plans for life. Did it make things better for you?

How do practice surrender to God in your relationship with Him? (Prayer, Scripture, Listening, Fasting, ect...)

Which areas of life do you need to entrust to God and His direction this week?

Action Step:

Reflect on how Jesus has changed your life by entering it. Share that with someone this week.
