

Recalculating Week 4: Read Proverbs 27:12

Ice Breaker

What's the furthest you've ever gone in the wrong direction before realizing it?
(Literal or figurative)

Discuss

Why do you think people ignore red flags in life, even when the warning signs are obvious to others?

Share a time when you realized you were on the wrong path in an area of your life.
What helped you make a change or what held you back?

How can we pray for each other to have the courage to take the action God is prompting you to take-even if it's uncomfortable or costly?

Action Step

Identify one area of your life where you see a "red flag?" What is one clear action you can take to begin changing direction?
